POLICE DEPARTMENT

CONGRATULATIONS to Lindenhurst Police Department's Commander Eric Senica (center) on his recent graduation from Northwestern University's School of Police Staff and Command. This is an intensive 10-week program that prepares law enforcement managers for senior position by uniquely combining academic principles with practical applications. Commander Senica graduated on January 17th, 2020. Lindenhurst Police Chief Thomas Jones (left) and Village Administrator Clay Johnson (right) also attended the graduation ceremony. In order to provide some flexibility, Commander Senica completed this certification while working a patrol shift at the police department for 2 weeks/attending school for two weeks. Commander Senica has a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice Administration. He is a 21-year veteran with the Department. The Village of Lindenhurst congratulates Commander Senica on this prestigious accomplishment and appreciates his dedication to our Department and community.
